

Requirements:

Home Page

This will be the landing page of website and will contain some pictures related the website. This page will also contain a line graph. This graph will be populated from a SQL server table. Content to put on page will be shared later.

About Us

This about the company and the team. Content will be shared later.

Overview

Overview of services and products. Content will be shared later.

Products and Services

The description of our services and benefits of this. This will also have an option "Show me Sample". This will open popup containing a table. There must be an option to download that table into csv.

Pricing

Pricing table and inquiry option.

Developers

A page which will have the details of how to use our APIs.

Contact us

This will have an option to submit the requirements. If someone contact then it should come to us in email form. An auto generated confirmation email will also go to the same email address given by the user.

Login Button

This will redirect the user to our existing console.

Book Demo Button

This will open a form. This form will be having fields like Name, Email, Phone Number, Date and time for the demo (UTC), Also generate a unique ID and this ID will be in response on the same page after submitting the requirements. All these details should come to us on the email. An auto generated confirmation email will also go to the same email address given by the user.

Scope of Work:

Developer:

1. Design and develop website
2. Email Service
3. Design Images for website
4. Help in hosting the website.
5. Developer will deliver website with complete source code
6. Programming Language will be the latest version of Angular.

Employer:

1. Provide the content to be used in website
2. Hosting of website
3. SMTP details
4. Email address to be used.
5. Email template

Copyright and Confidentiality

1. Website template should be new and cannot be used for any other customer.
2. Images should be new and unique.